

The Psalm Project

Discovering the Spiritual World through the Psalms

Psalm 89

Rev. Dr. Michael Harvey Koplitz

The Goal of this project:

This research project will examine the 150 psalms for the spiritual awareness each Psalm offers. Each Psalm will be examined by its language and the commentary of the Sages. The spiritual awareness analysis will be done in alignment with Ari's definition of the Tree of life, the Book of Creation, and the Zohar. Each verse of the Psalm will be rewritten using the intent of the language and spiritual commentary to convey its spiritual lesson.

The Main Resources:

The Zohar

The Book of Creation

Ari's writing on the Tree of Life and the Ten Sefirot

The Theological Wordbook of the Old Testament

Samson Hirsch's commentary on the Psalms

Tehillim – Psalms – A new translation with a commentary anthologized from the Talmudic and rabbinic sources

Your faithfulness also surrounds
 You.
 9 You rule the swelling of the sea;
 When its waves rise, You ^astill them.
 10 You Yourself crushed ^{1a}Rahab like
 one who is slain;
 You ^bscattered Your enemies with ²Your mighty arm.

Psa. 89:11 The ^aheavens are Yours,
 the earth also is Yours;
 The ^bworld and ¹all it contains,
 You have founded them.
 12 The ^anorth and the south, You
 have created them;
^bTabor and ^cHermon ^dshout for joy at Your name.
 13 You have ^{1a}a strong arm;
 Your hand is mighty, Your ^aright hand is exalted.
 14 ^aRighteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne; ^bLovingkindness and ¹truth go before You.
 15 How blessed are the people who know the ^{1a}joyful sound!
 O LORD, they walk in the ^blight
 of Your countenance.
 16 In ^aYour name they rejoice all the day,
 And by Your righteousness they are exalted.
 17 For You are the glory of ^atheir
 strength,
 And by Your favor ¹our ^bhorn is exalted.
 18 For our ^ashield belongs to the LORD,
¹And our king to the ^bHoly One of Israel.

Targum

Psa. 89:1 A good lesson uttered by Abraham, who came from the east. ² I will praise the kindness of the LORD forever; from generation to generation I will make known your truth with my mouth. ³ For I said, “The world will be built by kindness; you will establish your truth in the heavens.” ⁴ I made a covenant with Abraham my chosen; I confirmed it with my servant David. ⁵ I will establish your sons forever; and for every generation I will build your royal throne forever. ⁶ And the heavens will confess your wonders, O LORD; also your truth in the assembly of the holy ones. ⁷ For who in the clouds can be set beside the LORD? Who resembles the LORD in the multitudes of angels? ⁸ God is mighty in the mysteries of the holy ones; sitting on the throne of glory, great and fearsome over all the angels who stand around him. ⁹ O LORD God above the hosts of the height, who is like you in strength, O LORD? And your truth is around you. ¹⁰ You rule over the pride of the sea; when its waves increase and become high, you will subdue them. ¹¹ You have crushed Rahab, that is, wicked Pharaoh, like one slain by the sword; with the might of your strong arm you have scattered your enemies. ¹² Yours is the heaven, yea, yours is the earth; you have founded the world and all its contents. ¹³ The deserts in the north and those who dwell in the south, you created them; Tabor in the west and Hermon in the east sing praise in your name. ¹⁴ Yours is the arm with strength; your hand will be strong to redeem your people; your right hand will be raised to perfect your sanctuary. ¹⁵ Righteousness and justice are the dwelling place of your glorious throne; favor and truth go before your face. ¹⁶ Happy the people who know to please their creator with a shout; O LORD, in the splendid light of your countenance they will walk and be acquitted in judgment. ¹⁷ In your name they will rejoice all day, and by your righteousness they will be exalted. ¹⁸ For you are the splendor of their strength, and by your will their horn is exalted. ¹⁹ For our shields belong to the LORD, and our king belongs to the LORD, the Holy One of Israel. ²⁰ Then you spoke in a vision to your pious ones, and you said, “I have set up a helper for my people by the hand of one mighty in Torah; I have set apart a youth from among the people.” ²¹ I have found David my servant, with the holy oil I anointed him. ²² Whom my hands are ready to help; truly my arm will strengthen him. ²³ The enemy will not make him go astray; the son of wickedness will not afflict him. ²⁴ And I will crush his oppressors before him, and I will smite his foes. ²⁵ And my truth and goodness are with him; in the name of my word his glory will be exalted. ²⁶ And I will place his dominion at the harbors of the sea, and the might of his right hand on those who dwell by the rivers. ²⁷ He will call to me, “You are my father (abba), my God, and the strength of my redemption.” ²⁸ Also I will make him first-born of the kings of the house of Judah, the highest of the kings of the earth. ²⁹ I will preserve my goodness to him forever; and my covenant is constant for him. ³⁰ And I will set up his sons forever, and his throne for as many days as the heavens will last. ³¹ If his sons abandon my Torah, and do not walk in my judgments, ³² If they violate my covenant, and do not keep my commandments, ³³

Then I will punish their rebellions by means of the rod of the wicked, and their iniquities by the demons that plague them. ³⁴ But my goodness I will not revoke from him, and I will not be false to my faithfulness. ³⁵ I will not violate my covenant, and the utterance of my lips I will not change. ³⁶ Once I have sworn by my holy name: "I will not lie to David." ³⁷ His sons will exist forever, and his throne is bright as the sun before me. ³⁸ Like the moon that is set for an eternal sign, and a faithful witness in the sky forever. ³⁹ But you have forsaken and rejected, grown angry with your anointed. ⁴⁰ You have changed the covenant with your servant; you have profaned his crown to the earth. ⁴¹ You have forced all his strongholds, you have made his open villages a ruin. ⁴² All who pass on the road have trampled him; he has become a disgrace to his neighbors. ⁴³ You have raised the right hand of his oppressors; you have gladdened all his enemies. ⁴⁴ Also you will turn aside his sword and you have not supported him in battle. ⁴⁵ You have abolished the priests who sprinkle [blood] on the altar and cleanse his people, and you have cast to the ground his royal throne. ⁴⁶ You have cut short the days of his young men; you have covered him with shame and disgrace forever. ⁴⁷ How long, O LORD, will you remove your presence forever? [How long] will your rage burn like fire? ⁴⁸ Remember that I was created from dust; why have you created all the sons of men for vanity? ⁴⁹ Who is the man who will live and not see the angel of death, who will deliver his soul from his hand, and not go down to his grave forever? ⁵⁰ Where are your favors which were from the beginning, O LORD, which you swore to David in your faithfulness? ⁵¹ Remember, O LORD, the disgrace of your servant; I have borne in my bosom all the insults of many peoples. ⁵² For your enemies have scorned, O LORD, for they have scorned the delay of the footsteps of your Messiah, O LORD. ⁵³ Blessed be the name of the LORD in this age, amen and amen. Blessed be the name of the LORD in the age to come, amen and amen. --

Introduction

This Psalm records the agreement that the LORD struck with King David. The LORD promised that if David and his offspring remained faithful to Him, He would be true to them. However, exile and suffering would occur if the offspring betrayed the covenant.

Superscript

“Ethan the Ezrahite is the songwriter-author of Psalm 89. The title of that Psalm says it is “a maskil of Ethan the Ezrahite.” In addition to Psalm 89, Ethan the Ezrahite is mentioned in 1 Kings 4:31 as a wise man, yet not as wise as King Solomon, who “was wiser than anyone else, including Ethan the Ezrahite.” First Chronicles 2:6 gives the added information that Ethan had four brothers and was the son of Zerah (called Mahol in 1 Kings 4:31). He was of the tribe of Levi.

First Chronicles 15:17 mentions an Ethan who was involved with bringing of the Ark of the Covenant to Jerusalem. Since he is called “Ethan the son of Kushaiah,” he is probably a different person from the author of Psalm 89. However, 1 Chronicles 15:19 adds that the son of Kushaiah was a musician, one of the men to sound the bronze cymbals, and this had led some scholars to assume a link between the two Ethans. If they are the same person, then Ethan the Ezrahite is probably also known as Jeduthun (1 Chronicles 16:38–42 and the titles of Psalms 62 and 77).”¹

Mystical Methodology to Prayer

All prayers result in spiritual energy which rises through the conduits that connect Sefirot realms. The "answer" to prayers is the transformation of spiritual energy from its original frequency to an appropriate frequency which will give the necessary results.
