

Q15 What aspects of the job do you find most stressful?

Answered: 53 Skipped: 17

ABA Survey NJ

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	People expecting miracles without needing following a plan	3/2/2020 9:31 PM
2	Parent involvement	2/23/2020 9:46 PM
3	paperwork	2/14/2020 12:53 PM
4	The paperwork, balancing home and work life	2/12/2020 7:29 PM
5	Struggling to bring parents or other support staff on board with the treatment plan and having them understand the importance of ABA services for children with Autism.	2/9/2020 11:38 PM
6	Insurance companies are constantly squeezing us to do more with less	2/8/2020 4:24 PM
7	administrative, reauthorizations with certain insurance companies	2/6/2020 12:11 PM
8	Working with parents who have yet to see the benefits - getting buy in from families	2/5/2020 10:16 PM
9	treatment fidelity across settings and people. Parents feeling like we can "fix" their child but, not following thru with treatment procedures.	2/5/2020 7:10 PM
10	Insurance	2/5/2020 5:37 PM
11	Pressure from boss/supervisors	2/5/2020 12:44 PM
12	Lack of support from administration	2/5/2020 12:33 PM
13	Scheduling, parent worries	2/5/2020 12:11 PM
14	Working with the State, securing funding.	2/5/2020 11:49 AM
15	Case managing	2/5/2020 11:43 AM
16	Deadlines, parent expectations, parent participation, lack of skill set in Paraprofessionals	2/2/2020 7:29 AM
17	Paperwork required by insurance companies	2/2/2020 1:05 AM
18	Parent training	2/2/2020 12:56 AM
19	Progress reports and data collection	2/1/2020 6:58 PM
20	program writing	1/30/2020 4:17 PM
21	Working with children that are failing due to unrealistic expectations.	1/30/2020 2:25 PM
22	I guess juggling so many different job descriptions at once (initial assessments due, treatment planning, supervision, parent training etc.) can be stressful at times but can also be rewarding!	1/30/2020 1:19 PM
23	parent training	1/30/2020 11:50 AM
24	training staff that do not support aba	1/30/2020 9:07 AM
25	When home/school limits treatment	1/29/2020 2:25 PM
26	juggling the amount of time spent treatment planning and supervising	1/29/2020 2:25 PM
27	That I have many clients and not enough time in the school day.	1/29/2020 2:17 PM
28	Staffing	1/29/2020 1:18 PM
29	Training staff and parents	1/29/2020 1:07 PM
30	Insurance	1/29/2020 9:50 AM
31	Insurance related aspects	1/28/2020 10:10 PM
32	Parent training as some parents are not interested in spending the time talking and learning	1/27/2020 7:49 PM
33	Communication with other disciplines	1/25/2020 10:30 PM
34	dealing with insurance protocol and paperwork	1/23/2020 11:15 PM
35	Parent training	1/23/2020 10:22 PM

ABA Survey NJ

36	insurance requirements	1/23/2020 10:20 PM
37	Parent training. Either parents can't cooperate or they need more emotional skills that I can give them	1/22/2020 10:44 PM
38	Documentation	1/22/2020 9:22 PM
39	Usually have too many clients	1/22/2020 9:01 PM
40	Guiding overwhelmed parents	1/22/2020 5:53 AM
41	Paperwork	1/21/2020 11:50 AM
42	Scheduling	1/20/2020 9:32 PM
43	I find the following stressful: Because of the treatment model, the therapy team often becomes responsible for the child's treatment and progress, rather than parents retaining responsibility. It take time for parents to buy into the 'process' and understand the progression, rather than wanting to see instant results. Parents also want the treatment to fill a lot of holes and gaps; (such as bedtime, early morning routines) which is stressful to fill.	1/20/2020 1:13 PM
44	Working with members of so many different disciplines	1/20/2020 12:10 PM
45	Billing	1/16/2020 8:07 PM
46	staffing	1/16/2020 10:25 AM
47	Supporting parents; case management; training in new behavior technicians.	1/16/2020 9:38 AM
48	insurance regulations. Audits are a big pain. Seems like insurance has very minimal laws, they cut rates, can withhold pay etc and the hardworking bcbas and therapist are weighed down with so much regulation	1/15/2020 11:26 PM
49	Too much to do in too little billable time, many skills needed that take a long time to learn/develop, keeping up with insurance regulation	1/15/2020 10:51 PM
50	When other professionals think the child knows something and the child is breaking down because they dont understand what to do.	1/15/2020 9:56 PM
51	poorly trained professionals	1/15/2020 9:36 PM
52	Staff straying from treatment plan	1/15/2020 8:24 PM
53	How others implement the program	1/15/2020 2:18 PM