ABSTRACT

Dawat-o-Tabligh is an important responsibility; it means to call the people towards Deen-e-Islam. Its object is to spread its truthiness, authenticity and to the people follow it. The task of preaching to conduct Prophet Mohammad (PBUH) is a practical example. He spread the message of Allah throughout the world in a good way. He adopted different sources to the completion of scam. Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) reached the message through speech, writing, miracles and good actions etc. Besides He sent the letters to the king of other countries to accept Islam, and sent ambassadors in different regions and countries. He also made agreements with Kufars (Non-Muslims) so that find the opportunity of preaching Islam. The resources which were used by Muhammad (PBUH) will be beneficial and have great importance for every preacher of Islam.
