

Hamburg
University
Press

Hamburg University Press

the publishing house of the Hamburg State and University Library

Isabella Meinecke

Some basic information

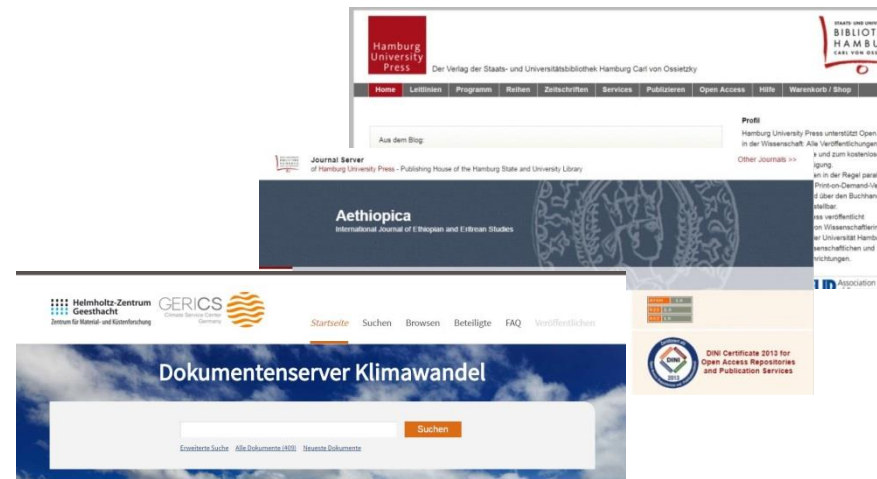

We

- are a UP of the first generation in Germany
- are linked to the Hamburg State and University Library
- publish hybrid as well as digital-only
- support the Golden path of open access
- are mostly subsidized by the library
- are concerned about quality and visibility
- have very limited resources

Our products

- monographs (hybrid)
- anthologies (hybrid; referenced articles separately available / archives)
 - up to 20 per annum
- journal hosting (digital, Green/Gold open access)
 - 8 journals, several issues per annum, new journals, platform makeover
- repository development / hosting
 - climate change
- publication management
- experiments
- projects and strategic partnerships

unique features

- focus on Hamburg-related scholars
- focus on visibility
- journal hosting platform
- status: laboratory *in flux
- library's “crows nest” for projects on Open Access, Open Science, future tasks for libraries

Main challenge: at the crossroads from laboratory to sustainable infrastructure:

- re-adjusting our profile and mission*
- make it compatible to manifold demands*

Need for networking

We are keen to learn more about ...

- you and the way you respond to challenges
- how to improve/empower networking on a European level
- how to serve scholars – especially of the HSS – best

Isabella Meinecke

isabella.meinecke@sub.uni-hamburg.de