

Questionnaires

1. How many years do you have experience in software development?

<input type="checkbox"/> Above 2 years	<input type="checkbox"/> Developer
<input type="checkbox"/> 2-4 years	<input type="checkbox"/> Tester
<input type="checkbox"/> 4-6 years	<input type="checkbox"/> Team lead/Project manager

2. Do you have knowledge about the following software artifacts?

<input type="checkbox"/> Release, e.g., release notes, version name	<input type="checkbox"/> Pull-request (PR), e.g., PR title, description, tag name
<input type="checkbox"/> Issue, e.g., issue title, description, status	<input type="checkbox"/> Commit, e.g., commit messages, author, committer

3. Do you have knowledge about traceability links among different artifacts in software engineering?

a. If yes, can you please explain where and how do you use traceability links among different artifacts? Give an example.

4. Do you think traceability link is important for release notes with related software artifacts, e.g., PR, commit and issue?

5. What is approximate time interval between two releases in practice and do you have any idea how many issues are resolved during this time period?

6. How many developers are involved in producing release notes and how a developer knows about all of changes for latest release?

7. Do you reuse any text contents from commit messages, PR titles and descriptions, and issue titles and descriptions?

8. Let try to identify the links among release note contents and related artifacts.

9. What do you think about this manual traceability link identification?

10. Do you think automated traceability links reduce this manually task?