

OPEN PUBLISHING

TU Delft OPEN Publishing supports researchers and teachers in sharing their publications online with an open license. Share your work openly with all your peers to increase impact!

We offer:

Publication services

Consultation on your publication options

A publishing platform

Open Books

Want to publish an edited volume, monograph and/or a conference book volume in Open Access?

Receive guidance on selecting the right license, advise on copyrights, indexing and unique identifiers.

Check out the website:

OR send an email about your project to one of our team members:

Open Journals

We help you with starting your own scientific journal with an open access publishing model. This includes existing titles being transferred to an open access model or to existing titles being revived.

Check out the website for more information:

Open Textbooks

Are you a teacher? Do you want to use your own teaching materials and be able to share them with an open licence?

We can guide you through selecting the right license, advise on copyrights, indexing and unique identifiers.

Visit the website for more information:

OR send an email about your project to one of our team members:

